

New classes on the schedule--check it out below. Mine Craft class, Pillow Case class, Disappearing Nine Patch class, Jelly Roll Race and more.

June 19, 2015

It's finally summer! Blue skies. No rain. Very little wind. And that means my grass will grow, which is unfortunate because the riding lawn mower doesn't want to start. Sigh. I got most things mowed-but not the front yard where the dogs live. They now have to jump up & down to see over the grass. I think of it as built in exercise. Becca just gets annoyed. And Keepers gets lost.

But with summer comes strange new shows on television. I don't know when tv switched from regular season plus summer rerun season, to regular rerun season + irregular season + summer season. New shows are popping up all over the place.

I started watching one called Aquarius, about the summer of Charles Manson. It's a period piece from the 60s, starring David Duchovny. It's nice to watch a show that doesn't use technology to solve crimes-because it didn't exist then. But I'm not sure I can handle the sexist & racist elements and I really don't care about Charles Manson or how he came to be. It's still on the taping schedule, but not on the watching schedule.

And then there is one called "The Strain." It had an interesting premise. A plane lands in New York and all passengers were alive minutes before landing, all but 4 are dead upon landing. I really should have seen this one coming, because apparently there was "something" knocking around in the cargo hold. But I figured it might be a medical mystery virus type of show. Nope. Zombies. Or at least something similar, like vampires, because there is a coffin with dirt inside that came with the plane. Not interested. It's off the taped timers.

But, with a different take on Zombies, is a detective show called iZombie. Now, I just discovered this one, so I have some catching up to do, but the premise is a medical resident turns into a zombie while on a boat cruise party. Naturally. That's where zombies become zombies. Everyone knows this. Anyway, she has an appetite for brains which has the extra added benefit of getting their memories. Or something like that. Anyway, she can now pass herself off as a psychic consultant for the police.

Not to be outdone, is a show called Stitches, where elite, brainy scientists take brains of dead people, hook up a live person to the brain, while she is immersed in water (somehow that apparently makes it so much easier) and she can "see" or "be" in that person for a short period of time, thus allowing her to figure out how that person died. I'll give it a few more episodes.

"Zoo" is coming up, which has something to do with wild animals gone bad. I'll have to watch that one after Becca has gone to bed. Then there is Whispers, Proof and Wayward Pines. In order: Whispers has something to do with kids talking to an imaginary adult called Drill and National Security hinges on finding & stopping, and presumably believing, this "imaginary" guy called Drill. Proof is about a multi billionaire hiring a doctor to find proof of life after death-and, btw, the multimillionaire is dying. Soon. So it should be a short run show. Wayward Pines-I haven't a clue. A federal agent gets trapped in a town & can't get out. Sounds a little like Once Upon a Time. I'm skipping this one.

But there are at least 128 new shows starting this summer and that doesn't count all the ones that started in May.

And we complain that there is nothing to watch on tv. Silly. Who wouldn't want to watch "Food to Get You Laid," which is about an expert chef who guides couples "who want to take things to the next level in the kitchen." I guess there may be people who need this kind of a fix because Game of Thrones is over for the season. I'm just kidding. Game of Thrones isn't about sex in the kitchen. It's about--well, let's just say the sex isn't confined to the kitchen and let it drop.

But if you watch the kitchen show, at least you'll be sure that none of your favorite characters get killed or go blind or wind up in the middle of a horse raid surrounded by a totally new cast of characters never seen in any previous season.

But that's a whole 'nother rant.

PREVIEW OF FALL CLASSES

I know it's early, but with everyone shop hopping this summer I'd like to give you a goal--something to look for.

In September, we will have another English Paper Piecing class--this time on a miniature scale. Don't let that scare you off--what it means is, you can finish it because it is small!

The blocks are tiny, about an inch wide and maybe 2" long, pointed on each end and you will need about 105 of them. The quilt is called a "Chit Chat" quilt or a "Conversation" quilt.

My challenge to you is to find fabrics that "chit chat" about your life. For example, I will have dogs, cats, parakeets, ducks and horses in my quilt. Plus roses, the word "huskers" because I was born in Nebraska.

Find images on fabric that represent your life, where you have traveled, what you have accomplished, your job, your kids, your family, where you've lived, what you like to read, what you like to eat. Favorite flowers, birds, time of year.

And I will be collecting tiny prints available at the shop (and my home stash) and will provide a packet of 4"-6" squares of a variety of tiny images that will be part of the class fee--everyone who signs up will get the packet of squares. And during class we can exchange fabrics as well.

So start collecting and think tiny.

Visit any participating quilt shop during the summer and ask for their free row by row pattern. More than 2500 shops across the country are participating. The 2015 theme is Row by Row H₂O, and each shop will have a row with the water theme. The patterns are free, limit 1 to a customer. Patterns are not available online or by mail. Shops may also have their row kitted for your convenience. The Row By Row runs from June 21 through September 8, then the "hibernation/sewing" period begins. QUILT CHALLENGE!

The Buckeye Community Club is hosting a 6th annual quilt and fabric arts show September 19 & 20. The show is celebrating the 90th anniversary of the Buckeye School, which now serves as a community center.

The show will have 30 contemporary quilts and fabric arts pieces, each displayed with an antique or traditional quilt, matched for color, fabric, technique or other connection.

The theme for this year's show is Happy Birthday! and the Buckeye Community Club is looking for quilters and artists to make a small quilt (about 48" X 48", doesn't have to be square) to donate to the show. The show will sell the pieces as unique birthday cards or presents -- so use your imagination in creating your quilt. Proceeds from the sale will help to preserve and improve the historic Buckeye School and rural community.

As an incentive, monetary prizes will be awarded for the Grand Champion ($100?) and People's Choice, Best Technique, Artistic Merit and Innovation ($50? each). (Monetary amounts still being decided.)

Quilts do not need to be finished before September, but the Club needs your commitment. You can contact Ed Harris at 970-568-3401 or at eharris@frii.com to let him know that you plan to participate.

Come watch the demo and learn some of the tricks to getting good cuts.

MINE CRAFT QUILT CLASS JULY 16 & 30, 1-5 $20

The oh so ever popular Mine Craft computer game has interesting pixelated characters that translate easily into quilt blocks. For the uninitiated, the "quilt blocks" will be made up of 2" squares (or smaller), with the colors placed to imitate the Mine Craft character. Sewing is simple--sew all the squares together. The hard part is choosing which green to put where. Patterns of various Mine Craft characters and images will be provided. Students are expected to bring fabric suited to the game--ask your kids, they'll know what I'm talking about. (Essentially, lots of greens, some pink, some red, gold, brown, silver & blue.) Patterned fabrics will work, but stick mostly with tone on tone prints and some solids. Class will be divided into choosing & cutting your squares, and starting to sew your squares. I will have fat quarter bundles suitable for the blocks, but please bring your own fabrics and plan to exchange colors with other class members.

Disappearing 9-patch Sun. July 19, 1-5 $20

If you missed the class the first time, we're doing it again! Take 5" squares (48 variety, like a charm pack or 2), combine with 48 5" squares of 1 color, plus 12 squares for a "center" color and you have the making of a quick & easy quilt!

Jelly Roll Race Sat. July 18, 10:30-5 $20

On your marks, get set.....sew! Learn the mechanics of manipulating impossibly long strips of fabric that quickly turn into a 60" X 70" (with borders even larger) quilt. Choose from jelly rolls we have at the store, or cut your own for a specially themed quilt (western, cats, fishing, kids). You have all day and you will finish your quilt. I promise!

Bertie's Year last Friday of the month, 1-4

Bertie's Year is a small wall hanging, (or you can make each block into a mini quilt for display each month). Bertie is done in flannels and wool (kit only includes flannel). Bertie (the bird) and friends (squirrel, pumpkins) are appliqued with crazy quilt embroidery embellishments.

HAND APPLIQUE CLUB

This is a get-together & stitch class. Many of us are trying hand applique these days-- patterns are calling for a lot more applique. The club is designed for quilters who already do some hand applique, but beginners are welcome as well. We will share techniques, suggest patterns, talk about threads and, in general, just stitch. A little quiet time away from the distractions of home is what we need to get our projects done.

HAND EMBROIDERY CLUB

If you want to learn to hand embroider or just brush up your technique, join us on the second Saturday of the month from 10 to noon. We provide free vintage patterns, and this year we will have free patterns of girls with hats, that you can embroider, embellish and color. Each month Kathy Sconce shows us a new stitch to try, plus, she guides us through thread choices, how to knot, fabrics to use, and tracing techniques.

Knit Pickin' Club

This is another get-together class to sit & knit, work on our projects, share information and get some help. We will share techniques, suggest patterns, but mainly we'll sit & knit (or pick).

Toad Toters

On full moon days (as noted in the calendar) you will get 20% off all purchases (not otherwise discounted) that you can fit in your bag. You must bring your bag to participate. Full Moon Days: May 4 (observed), June 1, July 1, August 29.

Discount Policy

We will honor only one discount -- whichever is largest. You can't combine a 10% with a 25% discount to get a 35% discount. On this we can't be bribed.

Color of the Month

May flowers/floral, June baby novelties, July blue, August black & gray

Join the fun and come feel the difference of quality fabrics.
