

December 7, 2018

The Spring 2019 schedule is done! We may make a few changes here and there and we may add a class or two. And I'm sure I made a few mistakes. It happens. I'll apologize ahead of time.....

And the explanation for the classes will be coming soon. Please feel free to sign up now--and if you are interested in any class, but aren't sure, please just tell us and make sure we put your name down anyway. That will help me prepare better for upcoming classes. And I'm serious about telling us--or me in particular--to write your name down--I forget to do that & then I never know who is coming to class. You'll be doing me a favor by helping me stay on track. :) I don't have the sign up sheets/box done yet, so just be patient with me. I wanted to get the calendar out as soon as I could because we have lots & lots & lots on the schedule.

I'll alert you to a couple of classes right now: The One Block Wonder class will begin Feb 16, and will run for 3 sessions through March. The reunion is Jan 26 from 4-6. Those of you who have taken the class before, get your quilts ready (tops are just fine) and bring them in. If you can't attend, please bring your top to the store so we can show it on Saturday. Those of you who don't know what we're talking about: Come to the reunion. Be prepared, you will want to sign up for the class. To do this class you need 7 identical panels.

Daenette More is a featured teacher with us this year. She is teaching the Pineapple Block. Most quilters have the Pineapple Block as one of their bucket-list quilts they want to accomplish. Daenette has great tricks & tips to making this block. You don't want to miss the class.

Sue Freirch is taking us down the path, once again, of beautifully stunning quilts, from her Aegean Sea quilt to Ribbons & Roses, a Southwind design quilt. Plus, she's handling the One Block Wonder class and a turned edge, machine applique quilt (Cat's Play). It's a technique class, but you will have a fun small wall hanging when you're done. She's also doing an Elizabeth Hartman quilt, not sure which one. If you're not familiar with Hartman's patterns, just run a search. I will put examples into the newsletter later. They are popular patterns, featuring forest creatures, unicorns and gnomes, not necessarily in the same quilt.

We'll have several log cabin styled quilts this year. Two will be taught this spring: a half log cabin and a Cabins in the Corner log cabin quilt. Stay tuned for others, including the every popular paperbag log cabin class and circular cabins.

The Monthly Mini class will be several kitted & fused (not laser cut) wall hangings. We will work on each wall hanging for 2-3 months. I'm not sure what the first one is--it should be coming soon, so I will put it in the newsletter after it gets here.

Wool applique projects are busting out of the free embroidery class and are standing on their own. We are doing a seasonal wall hanging, working on it once a month, from Buttermilk Basin called Live Each Season. We are also doing Wool Needle Cases classes, 3 different ones this spring. Pick your favorite needle case, or do all three & get your Christmas gifts done for next year!

The Free Embroidery Club is doing A Gardner's Alphabet Quilt, which will teach many new stitches and you get to crayon color as well. You have to buy the pattern, but the teaching of all the bits is part of the free club.

Another new Free class is the Free Hand Work Club, every Tuesday afternoon from 2-4. This is a sit & hand stitch, crochet, bind, knit group. Bring what you're working on, sit up at the table in front by the window and work on your projects for awhile. You can get advice & suggestions from your fellow quilters and share your experiences about your projects.

We are also bringing back English Paper Piecing in the form of the Grandmother's Flower Garden Class. And Sandra is also hand piecing a flower garden, so you can learn either style. We'll meet from 2-4 on the last Monday of the month.

We are continuing our "Potluck" quilt through the spring. This is a free form, with some structure, class. It involves scraps, color, free form techniques, make it work anyway you want, and liberated thinking. I've never had so much fun and we want everyone to try this style and join the fun.

The Diaphanous fabric that we just brought in has produced (or soon will) two different quilts, to be scheduled later in the spring (Mystic Garden Retreat & FanFaire--block of the month style). I do have more fabric on order and we will allow students in the classes first opportunity to get their fabrics. So if you are interested, let me know and we will start lists. I don't want you to miss out.

Free Block of the Month will be a black & white + one other color quilt. You get to draw for your color, but if you don't like what you got, you can swap with someone else, draw a new color, or just make one up. Your choice. This is a popular style of quilt right now, so it won't be hard to find black & white quilt pictures on line, to give you an idea of what ours might look like.

The Free Knitting Club is moving up its time on Wednesdays: We'll meet 2 days a month, on the 2nd & 4th Wednesday from 3-7. Bring your knitting, sit at our front table and relax while you knit awhile. Bringing your favorite beverages is encouraged!

Plus long arm classes and rental days. We will be busy this Spring! I'm trying to figure out a way to clone myself.

Enjoy!
